

The terrain at EchoHaven is rolling hills, aspen stands and three wetland areas that provide the sights and sounds of nature. Choose your home site with:

- spectacular mountain views
- nestled in the trees
- overlooking a natural pond.

The community has an ecological approach to the home sites, common property and to the building standards.

"The first rule of sustainability is to align with natural forces, or at least not try to defy them."
 – Paul Hawken

"I'd put my money on the sun and solar energy. What a source of power! I hope we don't have to wait 'til oil and coal run out before we tackle that."
 – Thomas Edison

"Treat the Earth well. It was not given to you by your parents. It was loaned to you by your children"
 – Kenyan Proverb

Make Life Better at EchoHaven

EchoHaven is a sustainable community in Rocky Ridge – northwest Calgary.

The small neighborhood of 25 home sites with a beautiful, natural setting focuses on quality of life, reduced environmental footprint, healthy and efficient homes.

Community Features

- all home sites have solar access
- trees and ponds surrounding your home
- 60% of the natural features preserved to promote a low maintenance landscape
- reduction of grid power and utility costs compared with a standard home
- zero greenhouse gas emissions
- rainwater harvesting to reduce treated water consumption

Anything else you're interested in is not going to happen if you can't breathe the air and drink the water. Don't sit this one out. Do something."

– Carl Sagen

Home sites allow for a variety of house types:

- bungalow
- 2-storey
- rear walk-out
- front walk-out
